1946 Ford

1948 Ford

1947 Mercury

1941 Fenders

not available at this time

1941 Ford front fenders were multiple piece, and split at the reveal line.

Early 1941 lower fenders were 2 piece, later one piece.

Ford and Mercury use the same shape rear fenders. Trim holes and taillight mounts differ between years and models.

1942-48 Fenders

not available at this time

1946 Ford used square parklight over grille, 1948 uses round parklight below headlight. 1947 could use either. Ford fenders had an extension between the fender and the hood over the grille.

Ford and Mercury use the same shape rear fenders. Trim holes and taillight mounts differ between years and models.
